R. B. Henrichs

"I have known Mr. Henrichs for a lifetime. He is clean, competent and a successful business man; has a fine record as a public official which makes him unusually familiar with the detail of county government and he is, in addition, young, energetic and progressive. I am confident Washoe county will find him to be an excellent commissioner," such were the words of Emmet D. Boyle, governor of Nevada at the time of his appointment of Rufe Henrichs to the office of commissioner of Washoe county last February. His friends say that he has not only made good on that prophecy, but that Mr. Henrichs has shown such a capacity for good results that he should unquestionably be continued in that office after the coming election.

As one of his enthusiastic supporters has it, Rufe Henrichs has been responsible for 90 per cent of the good roads work that has been performed since he went into office. I want to see him on the job for a long time to come.

Henrichs is numbered among "Persons in the Foreground," as told in the Nevada Newsletter which sums up a comprehensive biography of this native Nevadan, born in Virginia City, with these words: "He is a young man who has a host of friends because he is made out of that good old, splendid, reliable material—the kind that plays the game of life straight from the shoulder and on the square."

Tax Rate Shows Decided Decrease

Indications Point to Big Landslide

George Kitzmeyer has recently received a letter from a friend of his living in Albany, N. Y., who has always been a dyed-in-the-wool Republican and always voted his ticket straight, in which the writer throws some light on the political situation in Albany and why New York state will go for Wilson. He writes: "Don't let that man Hughes fool you into the belief that he is a friend of the workingman. Bills like the full crew bill, the five-cent fare from New York to Coney Island, the equal pay for women school teachers, he vetoed while governor of New York. He also stopped Sunday baseball, the only day that workmen could enjoy that pastime, and then look at what he did to the poor hatters in Danbury when he was on the Supreme bench. He is a good man for the corporations. In my neighborhood there are twenty-seven families living, all railroad people, and every one of them Republicans. Four years ago all voted against Wilson. A straw vote was taken among sixteen of these families last Sunday evening and every vote was for Wilson. From the display of Wilson buttons it looks like a cinch for Wilson. He certainly will get a large railroad vote, and that is largely Republican."
